ITEMS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

—Speaking of [illegible] employed and paid by Government officials [illegible] says a petitions communicate [illegible] one who ought to be in Camp Chase during the war. We don't know what fault this is, [illegible] We denounce this infamous policy of rewarding traitors. If we were as ready to pay needy and destitute Union families for what they have furnished the Government, as we are to give employment to these long tried enemies of the Government and notorious Secessionists, it would be a little more creditable to us. This man was concerned in making iron for the Rebel Government, under contract, before the Federal army came in, and it would be well for those who desire to promote the interest of the avowed rebels, to hire him to start his iron-works again!

Men who are not for the Government are against it, and have no claims upon its bounty. The Government has friends enough in this country, without the services of its enemies.

The most impudent and brazen-faced devils we have here are galvanized rebels, who have taken the oath to protect their property.

We have seen some of these suffering women bare footed on our streets, within the last ten days, begging for something for themselves and children to eat, while their husbands are in the Federal army, facing rebel bullets. At the same time we have seen certain she-devils upon the streets, of the "female persuasion," dressed in silk, who scorn to walk under the American flag, and walk round it to avoid contamination. We have given many a poor Union woman five and ten dollars, and if we had the fortune to sustain us, not one of them in the whole length and breadth of East Tennessee should want for anything. But what can a few individuals of limited means do among such an army of sufferers?

Thanks to God labor is everywhere remunerative, and when this war is over the scornful, proud, and bitter rebel woman will find herself upon a level with the poor Union woman, without a gang of negroes at her command. Our women will then be in a field together, where the rich and poor, the loyal and disloyal, can compete with each other, and where it will not be a disgrace to labor.

We hope to see the day in East Tennessee when it will no longer be dishonorable for young ladies to sew and work in the kitchen. Nay, we desire to see the day come when the honest and virtuous poor, who have been pinched and persecuted by the hateful aristocracy, will be called upon, to marry, to give their [illegible] on forms and [illegible] conclusions.

TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 24, 1865

Question of Jurisdiction Interesting Case.

There is a case now pending before the Salt Lake Probate Court, which has excited a good deal of interest, and is of no little importance.

The case comes up about as follows: At the last session of the Grand Jury, one Wm. A. Hickman was indicted for the alleged crime of larceny. The case coming on for trial the other day, the defendant was let on $5,000 bail, and Gen. Hempstead, Provost Marshal, appeared in court and stated that he understood that Hickman was in the military service of the United States, that he was in Camp Douglas in such service, and for that reason did not appear. He asked the court to stay any proceedings on the bond until the opening of the court next day, when he would be prepared either to bring the defendant into court or respond to its process. The default was thereupon entered pro forma, with the above understanding. At the opening of court next day, Capt. Hempstead appeared with Hickman and his bondsmen, and moved to set aside the default. The Prosecuting Attorney, Judge Snow, opposed the motion, and the court took the matter under advisement. Capt. Hempstead then, as attorney for Hickman, filed a motion to discharge the defendant on the ground that he is in the "military service of the United States," and as such only amenable to court martial for the crime alleged against him, to wit: Larceny, and in support of the motion, quoted the following laws of Congress:

Sec. 30. And be it further enacted, That in time of war, insurrection, or rebellion, murder, assault and battery with intent to kill, manslaughter, mayhem, wounding by shooting or stabbing with intent to commit murder, robbery, arson, burglary, rape, assault and battery with an intent to commit rape, and larceny shall be punishable by the sentence of a general court martial or military commission, when committed by a person in the military service of the United States, and subject to the Articles of War; and the punishments for such offences shall never be less than those inflicted by the laws of the State, Territory or District in which they may have been committed.

Statutes at Large. vol. 12. page 736. Act approved March 3, 1863.

At the same time, Capt. Hempstead, as Provost Marshal, presented a written demand that the defendant be turned over to the military authorities of the United States, for trial and punishment, according to law.

In support of the position assumed the affidavit of Capt. Lewis, A. A. General, was presented, showing that "Wm. A. Hickman" is, and for some time past has been, in the military service of the United States, and subject to the Rules and Articles of War.

The prosecuting attorney asked for time to examine the law prior to argument. Friday the case came up again, and was set for argument Saturday afternoon.

Pending the argument of Judge Snow, the case was adjourned over till Wednesday next at 10 o'clock, at which time the argument will be continued on both sides. The discussion is taking a very wide range, but is none the less interesting, and it is to be hoped that the important questions involved will be definitively settled.

The questions involved are interesting and may be important. It is not doubted that the court (Judge Smith) will render judgement as he may find the law to be.

PAPA.—Missouri has followed in the footsteps of Maryland and is a Free State. Tennessee imposed her Constitution has followed the same great example. Kentucky alone keeps from Georgia as moving in the same direction.

Utah Memorial Record.

Sisters are often the wives of the same man. We know of three sisters living with one man as his wives. Mothers and their daughters are frequently found living with one man as his wives. Uncles are married to nieces, and half sisters to half brothers. How sad the spectacle, which Utah, in the midst of polygamy, continually produces. Nothing better can be expected when such a disgusting doctrine is taught by leaders, to a community. How long, people of Utah, will you submit to such infamy? Will you not return to the path of right and cast the foul and unclean thing from you—repudiate the practice of [illegible] and be men and women—not slaves and concubines?

We desire to inform the Government and loyal people of America, that here in Utah, in defiance of the United States, the law of Congress prohibiting polygamy, is not only treated with contempt, but daily violated and the people exhorted and counselled by the leaders, to disregard it and take as many wives as they can support.

How long is our nation to be disgraced by this twin relic of slavery?

PRICE.—The telegrams are again burdened with projects for peace. We cannot present a rebellion in its last legs, and that we will have a peace offered by the people of the South without asking Jeff. Davis for his permission.

Loyal Words (!) of Loyal (!) Church Leaders.

"Man is not capable of self-government." John Taylor, Tabernacle meeting, May 1862.

"Judges Drake and Waite are fools and tools of that thing, the Governor."

"Let him (Harding) go back to his friends, if he have any. He has none, either in Heaven, or Hell, or any where else."

"This man (Harding) who is sent here to govern the Territory. Man did I say? Thing, I mean. A nigger worshipper—a black hearted Abolitionist is what he is and what he represents, and these I do naturally despise."

"If the Judges could get the power, as they want to do, to have the Marshal choose jurors of cut-throats, black legs, soldiers, (well known that no soldier could not [illegible]—Ed) and desperadoes from California, and we were to be tried by such men, what would become of us?"

"Brother Joseph said thirty years ago, That the South would rise against the North and the North against the South, and that they would fight until both parties were destroyed, and for my part I give it God speed."

"Do you acknowledge this man (Harding) as your Governor? I am your Governor. If the President will not remove him the people must attend to it."

"I will let him (Harding) know who is Governor. I AM GOVERNOR."

"I have no desire to live with a people who have brought ruin and disgrace upon their own heads. I will not live, neither will I have anything to do, with the United States. I will have a free and independent government to myself."—Brigham Young, Tabernacle, March 3d, 1863.

We have a few more of the same sort on hand, and they will be administered in small doses whenever it may become necessary to do so.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

New York, Jan. 22d.

The Herald's Shenandoah valley correspondent says: A gentleman of Madison county, who recently visited Richmond, states that he conversed with government officers who told him the holding of Richmond for any considerable time was despaired of by Davis and Lee, and the public archives, not necessary for immediate use, are being sent away. Hundreds of families have removed to North Carolina and Georgia. The city is said to be in process of being mined; Davis is determined that Richmond shall not fall into our hands except as a heap of ruins.

News from up the Shenandoah valley, report great suffering among the rebel forces still near Newmarket and Stanton.

Preparations have been made to make Harpers Ferry a depot.

The Herald's Buenos Ayres correspondent says: The Indians are very bold in their incursions, approaching near the city and driving off large numbers of cattle, horses and stock.

Philadelphia, Jan. 22d.

The Massachusetts, from off Wilmington the 18th, arrived to-day. All of Porter's fleet are in Cape Fear river. On the night of the 18th, five blockade runners [illegible] Inlet, North Carolina, and were captured by the fleet.

New York, Jan. 21d.

Arrived, ship Shawmuc, from the Gulf of California.

Sailed, for San Francisco 16th, ship Mary, from Boston; Mar Hawk, from Boston 21st.

Fortress Monroe, Jan. 20th.

The greater portion of the larger vessels of Porter's fleet, recently operating against Fisher, have returned and are now anchored in Hampton Roads. Our troops are actively engaged reconnoitering the banks of Cape Fear river and sounding for torpedoes, and removing obstructions to free navigation.

New York, Jan. 23d.

Trade is moderate with the same unsettled feeling noted for some time past. While peace rumors are so prevalent, check speculators have no disposition to force trade. The export and import trade continues dull. Considerable anxiety to learn the purposes of Secretary Fessenden is manifest in financial circles, and it is taken for granted that no more gold bearing bonds will be issued. Money is easy, and gold has fluctuated the past three days from two, twenty to two ten, with exchange at one hundred and ten, and freights to California are inactive. Cleared Jan. 14th, ship Reynauld, for San Francisco. There are active movements in wool, both domestic and foreign. Sales of 50,000 lbs. California at 63 cents. For hides there is a moderate demand. Tallow is drooping, with an active inquiry for Mexican. Government stock tight.

The Tribune's Fort Fisher correspondent says: The explosion of the magazine was caused by the carelessness of our men, who were indiscreet enough to go in with lighted cigars and lighted candles. While inside they were cautioned, but paid no heed. The total losses during the fight won't exceed 400, and those by explosion about 100 more.

New York, Jan. 23d.

The Herald's Washington special has various rumors concerning Blair's visit to Richmond. One is that Blair brought autograph letters from Davis to Lincoln saying he was ready to treat for peace, and that a communication from Lincoln has been taken back to Richmond expressing his willingness to send or receive commissioners. Many well informed people in Washington look for important results from Blair's second visit to the rebel capital.

A significant article appears in the Richmond Enquirer of last Thursday, which says: After every manly effort the rebels may fail and policy and interest would induce them to submit to the United States rather than to England, France, or Maximilian. With their military forces they could have been made to sweep this continent, and thus hide their shame, while America will become the colossal power of the world. On the other hand some Richmond editors, in view of the fact that they have lost all of their sea ports of consequence, make great efforts to prove these disasters as a blessing. They say war is now their sole business, and conscription must be vigorously enforced—every one that can, must fight.

The Richmond Whig says, that negroes in prime of life make better soldiers than white men over fifty.

Gen. Johnson, in his late speech at Columbia, S. C., says he is out of service and regretted that he couldn't serve with the rebel soldiers.

H. S. Foote refuses to be released and insists upon a trial to show cause for his arrest.

Capt. Semmes has reached Richmond.

The Herald's Orleans dispatch gives particulars of Grierson's late great raid in Mississippi. They confirm the previous reports of his great success. They marched 400 miles and lost less than 100 men, captured 600 prisoners, brought in 1,000 contrabands and 1,600 horses besides destroying 100 miles of railroad, etc.

The Herald's Central American correspondent makes important developments in regard to an intrigue in progress there, to bring about the absorption of the Spanish American Republic by the Maximilian Empire, through French agents.

[COMMUNICATED.]

G. S. L. CITY, Jan. 23d, 1865.

Editor Vedette:—Yesterday will not soon be forgotten in Utah. A Minister of liberal sentiments and not of the Mormon persuasion, held forth at Daft's Hall to a crowded and respectable congregation. The affair was indeed a novelty and caused no little talk and stir amongst the "Saints." The numerous attendance on the service spoke well for the appreciation of the move. I am not posted as to who were the prime movers in bringing the Rev. gentleman forward, but I suppose it was the Young Men's Literary Association of this city, if this be so, the liberal public owe them thanks.

It is an advance step in the right direction, for there are many who do not believe in the prevailing religion in Utah, who, nevertheless are desirous of worshiping at a shrine where abuse of the government, obscenity and disloyalty are not the chief characteristics. It was very pleasing to notice that the discourse was marked by a liberal christianity, and the absence of narrow sectarian principles and bigotry to which in Utah we are continualy treated. Many would attend the Tabernacle, in the absence of any other religious worship house, but it is more than can be patiently endured. The disgusting language frequently heard in that should be place of worship, such respectful worship, as was held in Daft's hall, yesterday, supplies a great want.

How pleasing, Mr. Editor, the prayer that the nation's cause might be prosperous, that the national arms might meet with success, that the God of Peace might send peace, and that our distracted country might be restored to harmony, etc. Also to have fervent prayer offered up for the wounded and suffering in our hospitals. O, how different from those gross mockings so frequently heard in this country, that God would smite our armies, confound the councils of the nation, etc.

I trust that this religious move is but another step towards advancing the regeneration of Utah.

Yours, Respectfully, LIBERAL.

SARAH JANE SMITH, of Washington county, Arkansas, was sentenced to be hung on the 25th of last month, by a military commission, at St. Louis, for cutting Government telegraph wires.

THE Stockton Record says there is a milk famine in that city.

WE publish to-day another of Brigham's harangues, delivered from the Tabernacle on Friday, the 8th of [illegible] 1864. It is eminently beautiful.

"I don't care what people think or say about me. If you will obey my councils you will go into the celestial Kingdom of God. I will say in regard to the law of tithing, that when any members of our church refuse to pay tithing, we will cut them off. If there are any who sympathize with such, they can go with them. It is just as much our duty to pay tithing as it is to be baptized, or to perform any duty in the church. There is a merchant living on Main street, no—Whisky street, (laughter)—Stink street, (more laughter) any name will do for it, who came here a poor boy. He has made hundreds of thousands of dollars trading with me, the largest portion of which has been taken from the hard working sisters. He don't pay tithing, but it is right and natural that he should. He has made donations, but we don't want donations from the members of our church. We want them to pay tithing. If they do not we will cut them off. Jennings pays tithing, and don't lose anything by it. Kimball does not, but he ought to. I do not think he has made the money honorably, he asks too large profits for his goods, etc. When we cut those members off from the church I am going to ask them to make donations. I will Gentiles who come here to make money to pay tithing. I want the Bishops to send their teachers to these Gentile merchants to ask for donations. Send to them every day, keep at them, give them no peace day nor night unless they do it.

We intend to cut off from our church all who mingle with those bogus Josephites. We are the true Josephites, the others are bogus. We shall not interfere with them, they can worship just what they please. None but disreputable characters will join them.

We have a great country in the south; they say it is a land of gold and silver. I don't know whether there is any gold there or not; perhaps there is. My prayer to God is, that the Saints may cover up all the treasures in the earth. Fifty thousand prayers a day ought to go up to God from the Saints that the treasures here may be covered up until we have revelations to reveal them. (Loud amens from the congregation.) They are going to bring quarts mills here. (laughter) let them do it. If Government sends quartz mills here we will use them to crush our spar rock. (Brigham here rieiculed the Government for destroying property at Camp Floyd. Said that Government owed them $25,000, but would not give them a gun, nor sell them anything; much of the property destroyed had become useful to the Saints. Said the end of Camp Douglas would be like Camp Floyd. The swords and bayonets at the Camp, he would yet convert into pruning hooks.) (Much laughter.)

The wicked may gather the gold and silver but it will do them no good. There is not a Latter Day Saint that will hunt for gold (loud amens). I have all the revelations that will lead you to eternal happiness. Keep my councils. Keep your armor bright to defend your rights, if they come here to destroy us; we will send them to hell across lots.

There is a sister here that tells me she is taking in boarders at seven dollars per week. She cannot afford it; she ought to get at least fifteen. Don't be fools to board people at seven dollars per week, when you can get fifteen. Make these persons who come here to hunt for gold, pay for it.

I want you, bishops, to mind your wards. Keep your eyes especially on the women. If they associate with those who have come here to corrupt and destroy us, report them. Mark those who are trying to ruin us. They shall not live here to corrupt and destroy us. We will have them removed. If they do not take them away from us, we will sink them (loud amens). The women who run up to that camp we will not have with us. If we cannot get rid of them in any other way we will send for their seducers and make them take them away from us. I have no fellowship for these things who run around here at night. We are not going to be run out of this place. If we go we will go voluntarily of our own choice and free will. God help us all. Amen."

A DRAFT for $5,500, in aid of the Christian Commission, has been received from Honolulu.

THERE are at present about six thousand men employed in the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Local Matters.

"Our Devil" had been remarkably quiet for a long time, when yesterday he broke loose with the following:

Some time since when in California and previous to his swearing fidelity to "Uncle Sam," he (to use the slang phrase) became "strapped." When in this decidedly unpleasant predicament he was importuned by sundry Chinamen in his immediate neighborhood, to kill some venison and sell to them. So one day after hunting in vain for the required game, a thought suddenly struck him. He owned, at the time, a "donkey," which, to all appearance, was "strapped" too. Out he goes one very dark night and shoots "Mr. Donkey"—carefully skins and dresses the animal and afterwards sells him for "venison," to the poor unsuspecting "Ah-Wing," at 25 cents per pound.

Billy Sheppard and some others, who lately came among our "soldier boys," in an almost destitute condition, and from whom they have received aid in various ways, by being boarded and lodged through the charity of the volunteers, have shown themselves wholly unqualified to appreciate the same. They have consequently received the cold shoulder from those, who, had they reciprocated the kindness received, would have been friends indeed.

The weather is in a hard freezing condition. Sleighing is splendid, and by way of reminding us of the "blows," not forgetting us this winter, last Saturday night blew us all inside of our houses, and a man was lucky that it didn't blow us, house and all off "the bench"—but our houses had better be blown than "torn down."

Arrival.—Lieut.-Col. Milo George, 1st Battallion Nevada Cav. arrived at this Post, on Sunday afternoon, from Camp Nye, Nevada, and reported for duty to the District Commander. The Colonel will be assigned to the command of his Battallion and of Camp Douglas.

We had the pleasure of a visit on Saturday from Messrs. McCoombs and Stein of the Overland Co., Mr. Woodward, of Ruby Valley; Mr. Gamble, of telegraph fame, accompanied by those real good fellows, Gilbert, Pratt and others of the "Saintly town" down below.

Mr. Welton, the gentlemanly and accommodating proprietor of the Mansion House, gives a "social party" on Thursday evening next. A limited number of tickets are to be sold. A good dance and splendid supper is sure to be enjoyed by all who attend.

A very large stock and general assortment of merchandize will be opened at Ellis Bro's Store to morrow. This firm, by making good selections and selling at fair prices, are realizing quick sales. The public will do well to call on them.

Mr. Gray, of the City News Depot, has laid on our table the "Golden Era," "Police Gazette," "Mining Press," "Morning Call," and "Index." Any of these papers will be delivered in camp daily at 50 cents per week.

The Oriental Restaurant is one of the best in town. Good tables and fair prices are the universal rule at this house.

Chas. Tagge, formerly Sergeant-Major of the 2d Cav., C. V., has been commissioned Second Lieutenant of Company "D," of that regiment.

Robt. Pollock, late Colonel of the 3d Reg't Cal. Int'f, has been commissioned as Lieut. Colonel of the 2d Reg't Cal. Int'f.

The following note was lately received by a gentleman from his overseer: "Please send me, by the boy, a pair of trace chains and two door hinges. Jane had twins last night—also, two padlocks."

Ex-Senator Latham and Judge Field arrived in New York on the 4th ult.

The following ... passed ... That ... three years allotted by the twenty-first section of the Act entitled "An Act increasing ... the duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved July 14th, 1862, for the withdrawal of goods from any public store or bonded warehouse, for exportation to foreign countries or transhipment to any port ... Western coast of the United States, ... exportation or transhipment of any goods ... for the whole or any part of the said term of three years, have been prevented by reason of an order of the President of the United States, ... during which such exportation or transhipment of such goods shall have been so prevented as aforesaid shall be excluded from the said computation. — San Francisco Union.

The rebels confined in the military ... this city ... to the old precise notions of honesty. They may believe in the policy of robbing an enemy of their cause, but they are decidedly opposed to stealing from each other. Last Wednesday two light-fingered gentry were caught in the act of appropriating articles of their fellow-prisoners to their own individual wants. This was a great violation of the prison rules, and a slight infringement of the principles of honesty. The "rebs" became very indignant, resolved themselves into a drum-head court-martial, and the two culprits were duly arraigned, tried, and found guilty, and sentenced. Every day a placard marked "Rogue" is pinned on each of their backs, and the two thieves are made to march ... before all the assembled prisoners. They do not relish ... much, but are forced to submit to it.—Louisville ... Journal.
